HIGH WATER SEASON

Nauta (IQT) to Iquitos (IQT)

⌚ 4-Night

This 4-night Amazon itinerary explores major highlights of the Peruvian Amazon and the Pacaya-Samiria National Reserve in an action-packed itinerary. Go piranha fishing, trek into the dense jungle with our experienced guides in search of wildlife such as Amazon monkeys, three-toed sloths, hoatzins, toucans, macaws and unravel the mystery of giant water lilies. Journeys focus on the Ucayali tributary, where wildlife feeding and nesting grounds are aplenty.

You'll have the opportunity to view taricaya turtles and spectacled caimans in their natural habitat, along with the Amazon's famous pink river dolphins whose love of frolicking in the river will delight both young and old. You'll also have enough time to find your favorite spot on the spacious five-star Aria Amazon, where you'll sample a wide range of Amazonian produce from chef Pedro Miguel Schiaffino's inventive and delicious onboard menu.

HIGH WATER SEASON

Iquitos (IQT) to Nauta (IQT)

⌚ 3-Night

Note: All itineraries are subject to change, due to weather and other conditions.

Get a taste of the most biodiverse rainforest in the world aboard the Aria Amazon. Begin your journey in Iquitos, a rustic city which is the beating commercial heart of the Peruvian Amazon. Our 3-night itineraries focus on the Marañón, the Amazon River's largest tributary, as well as other neighboring waterways, the Yarapa and Yanayacu-Pucate. Discover the habitats of these nutrient-rich waterbodies and how they — and the jungle around them — support a vast array of wildlife.

Regardless of the low water or high water season, our local born-and-bred naturalist guides know the characteristics of Amazonian birds and animals. With their keen senses, they guide Aria Amazon's ergonomic, low-emission skiffs to the jungle trails or tributaries where up-close wildlife encounters are likeliest. Knowing the Peruvian Amazon and the Pacaya-Samiria National Reserve like the back of their hand helps our guides make the most of your whirlwind trip to the Amazon.

 4-Night

 AQUA NERA
4-NIGHT HIGH WATER ITINERARY

Note: All itineraries are subject to change, due to weather and other conditions.

Get a taste of the most biodiverse rainforest in the world aboard the Aqua Nera. Begin your journey in Iquitos, a rustic city which is the beating commercial heart of the Peruvian Amazon. Our 4-night itineraries focuses on the Marañon, the Amazon River's largest tributary, as well as other neighboring waterways, the Samira, Yarapa and Yanayacu-Pucate. Discover the habitats of these nutrient rich waterbodies and how they — and the jungle around them — support a vast array of wildlife.

Regardless of the low water or high water seasons, our local born-and-bred naturalist guides know the characteristics of Amazonian birds and animals. With their keen senses, they guide Aqua Nera's ergonomic, low-emission skiffs to the jungle trails or tributaries where up-close wildlife encounters are likeliest. Knowing the Peruvian Amazon and the Pacaya-Samiria National Reserve at the back of their hands help our guides make the most of your whirlwind trip to the Amazon.

RAJA AMPAT TO SPICE ISLANDS

Sorong (SOQ) to Ambon (AMQ)

🕒 12-Night

Note: All itineraries are subject to change, due to weather and other conditions.

Raja Ampat, a land of glittering blue waters and strange rock formations, is part of the Bird's Head Peninsula in West Papua, the Indonesia's second easternmost province. The region is home to endemic and rare bird species, including the exquisite Wilson's bird of paradise. As well as the most diverse marine habitats in the world.

The Spice Islands in the Maluku region was once the center of the global spice trade. Centuries-old traditions and European relics on Banda Neira, once a booming spice hub, sit against the backdrop of Gunung Banda Api ("Fire Mountain"), an active volcano that's also a hiker's and birdwatchers' favourite. Lava flows into the sea has created magnificent underwater gardens.
